

Greenway Group sponsors 2016 AEC Cares Community Project at AIA Convention in Philadelphia

Lisa Henry, CEO at Greenway Group and Board Member of AEC Cares, announced today that Greenway is a sponsor for this meaningful project. 'This community center renovation project, led by the Board of AEC Cares and its president, Dave Conway at CMD, demonstrates that the professions of architecture and design and related industries have an impact on the well-being of people everywhere', Henry said. Consider making a donation too!
